

BY THE NUMBERS

STRATEGY

POWERED BY ENDEAVOR ANALYTICS

Explore how peer organizations are investing in strategy functions

SHSMD By the Numbers: Strategy provides valuable comparative data for strategy functions. Leaders can use this benchmarking data to inform decisions about organizational structure, strategic direction and levels of investment. Benchmark against your peers with this unique tool which shares data related to strategy departments.

KEY INSIGHTS

How are healthcare systems defining the strategy function?

- Contrast scope of capabilities and responsibilities
- Compare strategy department size
- Identify the specific responsibilities of strategists
- Explore which responsibilities are handled in-house vs. outsourced

What's of highest importance to strategy functions?

- Compare budget allocations
- Identify inputs into investment decisions
- Identify budget allocations for human resources wages vs. data vs. services

How are strategic functions organized?

- Compare organizational hierarchies and span of control
- Learn what departments are supported by strategy
- Understand degree of centralization for strategy departments
- Identify technology and/or tools utilized/invested in to support the function

FOR MORE INFORMATION REACH OUT TO:

Peter Miller pmiller@endeavormgmt.com or Nick Reposa nreposa@endeavormgmt.com